Supreme Court to Consider End of TPS Protections for Syrians & Haitians!

The Supreme Court will review the Trump Administration's efforts to end Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for immigrants from Syria and Haiti, but lower court orders blocking the terminations remain in place while the cases are being reviewed.

The disputes challenge DHS Secretary Kristi Noem's moves to end TPS protections for over 6,000 Syrians and 350,000 Haitians.

Oral arguments are scheduled for late April, with decisions expected by early summer, making these cases a key part of the high court's examination of the Administration's immigration agenda.
