

Changes to Appeals for Immigrants Facing Deportation Orders

The U.S. Department of Justice has issued new federal rules that revise the process for immigrants to appeal deportation orders.

New Rules Include:

- ▶ Appeal deadline shortened from 30 days to 10 days
- ▶ Deportation appeals automatically dismissed after 15 days unless a majority of immigration appeals judges choose to review the case
- ▶ Immigration appeals judges selected by the administration
- ▶ Changes published as an interim final rule
- ▶ Rules take effect in one month
